

January 26, 2017: In the Know

1. Elucent, with $7.2M in Tow, Advances Breast Cancer Treatment Device
2. 3M and Verily Life Sciences Collaborate to Develop Population Health Measurement Technology
3. What Sets JNJ's Value-Based Care Offering Apart?
4. Rochester Firm Makes Waves in Imaging Industry
5. Integer and Mainstay Extend Relationship through New Supply Agreement Skyline Medical Announces Pricing of Public Offering of Common Stock and Warrants
6. COVR Medical on Rochester Rising
7. Two Mayo Graduate Students Developing Automated Solution for Cell Culture
8. Mayo Clinic Receives $1.6 Million for Alzheimer's Research
9. Hamline University Chemistry Student Works to Develop a Test Card That Easily, Quickly, and Inexpensively Determines if Certain Medications are Degraded